ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING of | Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, May 20, 1903. MARINERS. No. 172 (SPECIAL).

> CHINA SEA. SHANGHAI DISTRICT.

> > Temporary withdrawal of the Tungsha Light-vessel.

TOTICE is hereby given that, on or about the 1st June next, the Tangsha Light-vessel 'Tungsha' will be removed for repairs, and that the temporary Lightvessel 'Lee Yuen' will take her place, The 'Lee Yuen' is a three-masted steamer painted black, having a black THE SECOND ORDINARY ANNUAL funnel with a yellow band round it. Her MEETING of Shareholders in the mainmast, which is surmounted by a Black Company will be field in the Company's hall, has a yard facross, from each arm of Office No. 14. Des Vœux Road, on which two fixed lights will be suspended in Accounts an t the Report of the General sea, and the two lower ones White at a In clear weather, the Red lights should have a range of visibility of 5 miles, and the White ones a range of 10 miles.

A White light will also be exhibited from sunset to sunrise on the forestay at a height of 6 feet above the rail, to show the direction in which the Light-vessel is head-

During foggy or thick weather, a gong will be sounded at intervals of one minute. If the Light-vessel he driven from her proper polition to one where she is of no use as a guide to shipping, the usual lights will not be exhibited, but a small fixed Red light will be shown at each end of the vessel; the ball will be struck as soon as possible and, until struck, it will be surmounted by a Red flag.

N.B. -It may possibly happen that one or both of the vertical lights on one yardarm of the temporary Light-ressel may be obscured by her own masts or funnel to a vessel that is approaching her when she is, swinging across the channel.

VULGARITY AND WEALTH.

The circumstances attending the marriage of Mr Reginald Vanderbilt at Newport, Rhode Island, yesterday, whether they are regarded as admirable or deplorable, are remarkable enough to be worthy of a passing comment. A thorough understanding of their significance is perhaps impossible unless one is both an American and a millionaire; but people who possess neither of these advantages may yet find not a little that is interesting in the contemplation of this surpassing effort of estentation and display. The extravagances of taste and expenditure; the essential vulgarity of the idea which seeks to make of an intimate family festival a show for the whole world; the struge perversion that makes the office of the priest subservient to that of the dressmaker and requires a dress rehearsal for a religious ceremony-these are in themselves merely symptoms of a state of affairs that is oxpressed in many other ways. Its basis is a very old and simple one, inseparable from any state of society in which wealth. is unevenly distributed. It is the constant fever to escape frem equality, and it is a marked characteristic of democratic com-

There is, theoretically, no social distinction of birth in America; but social distiuction is rought and found by the expenditure of money in all kinds of fantastic ways. With a little ingonuity, much money, and an absence of shame, the social ladder may be sealed in America, so that the host who invites his friends to meet a monkey at dinner may supersede. him who could think of nothing better than a pienic in gilded traction engines. The one thing is to escape from the commonplace, the rausl, the concairable; siways to be a length shead ; always, in the native expression, to 'go one better.' The enormous material wealth which is contred in this group of American society renders competitions of feshion extreme and fantastic, and it is remarkable that most Anierican millionsires who have put forth the most convulsive efforts to attract attention and to out-do their neighbours in these orgies of vulgarity have been among the loudest in complaining that the American newspapers have robbod them of their privacy. lett Road in the Colony of Hongkong, The carloads of flowers, the fountains of scent, the opposing armies of thieves and by the Surveyor of His Majesty the detectives, the ranks of policemen guarding treasure while an equal treasure is being profusely wasted, are merely somewhat sordid incidents in the struggle to spend an much money as possible. To sensible people it is not an attractive picture, and it is with gratification we remember that it is a picture distasteful to the mass of plain American citizens, in whose minds it excites the same sense of reproduction as in our own .- Daily Mail.

THE SERVANT QUESTION IN CALCUTTA.

Magisterial Proceedings.

Calcutta, May 8. - The case of boycott ing by native servants, which has aroused much interest in Calcutta, concluded yestorday, when the magistrate sentenced three accused-lately in the service of a Mr Jackson-to three months each, tho magistrate remarking that he was determined to stop this kind of practice among Calcutta domestic servants.

correspondent of the Rangoon Guzette

The domestic servant difficulty has been and is one of the questions of the hour. Like the poor it is always with us. Calcutta is no worse off than any of the other Presidency or larger towns in India. The question cropped up not because this is the silly acason and the Press are in want of pabulum, but it arose from the fact that twogentlemen, whose servants had boy cotted them, had the energy to employ a detective , to find out who was keeping servants from: taking service under them and in hauling the culprits before the beak who gave them free board and lodging for a period, but deprived them of their leisure and liberty. The Native Press took up the 245 subject and showed that the Native community also suffer from the domestic servant question, and, while sympathising RICHMOND with the European community in their affliction, they point out that the Europeans bring their troubles upon themselves by calling the servants soors and soor-ka-butcha, so liken them to the very lowest of the animal world. In this they are right, as the respectable mative would sooner get a blow than be abused in this manner, but unfortunately the majority of domestic servants are far from being respectable. They are recruited, if Mahomedans, from the lowest class of Mahomedan's from Eastern Bongal. The more respectable are from Behar and Upper India. The Bombay papers have taken up the ery and claim to have as great a grievance against their servants as Bengal, but this is a matter on which all Europeans in India can sympathise with each other, irrespective of the presidency, town, or bill station in which they reside, with this difference that each sufferer thinks that he is a greater sufferer than any one else. About 150 years ago, in the time of John Holwell, they knew how to deal with the servantinsolent demands for excrbitant wages. They established a rate of wages and framed laws which protected both master and servant from each other.

What it will do.

Pain Balm beals braises, burne, and scalds in, less time than any o her meat-It is 'antiseptic,' that is, it prevents putrefaction, and by so doing generally prevents an unsightly sear remaining after the injury is healed. For lame back, lumbage, and neuralgia, Pain 718 Balm has no equal. It has the quality of *gotting to the right spot.' No sufferer from these distressing effections should defer a trial of this remedy. One application gives relief. Try it. For sale by all chemists and medicine vendors; WATKINS Ltd., General Agents,

DISAPPEARANCE OF CAPTAIN J. THOMPSON.

Manchuria to foreign trade with all the

From the cricumstances that are known regarding the disappearance of Captain Jacob Thompson, of the N.Y.K. steamer Kawachi-maru, reported some weeks ago, there seems to be little doubt that the Captain, who was well known throughout the East, committed suicide when the Kawachi-maru was steaming through the Red Sea, says the Kobe Chronicle.

Early on Easter Sunday Morning, April 12th, the Captain was seen about the ship securing Mr Hewett's co-operation. Mr there was naturally some consternation on board. The Chief Officer, Mr. Hiortdahl, in the direction of Suez for forty miles in the hope of discovering some trace of the unfortunate man. Men with glasses were stationed on the look-out, but no trace of Captain Thompson was seen, and the vessel

The Chief Officer, who has sailed with Captain Thompson for four years and knew im well, remembered afterwards that the Captain's manner had been unusual since leaving Suez, and he had also noticed certain nerconsness, which he attributed to slight illness, but these peculiarities were so slight as to make only a passing impression at the time. The Captain left his cabin and papara all in order, and it is believed stances. Certain of the papers were addressed to his solicitors with directions as to the disposal of his property, others to the N.Y.K. Company giving directions in the the day. The Inspector of Schools (Mr event of his death. There would thus seem | E. A. Irving) was present on the ocvery little doubt that the act was pro-

A NEW STEAMER SERVICE.

From Java to Japan,

Arrangements are being rapidly pushed forward with regard to the now line steamships which is being established connect Java, China, and Japan. In all probability the running will be commenced in September, and thereafter a regular fourweekly service will be conducted. The line will be under the Dutch flag, and for the purpose of the trade three steamers of them was constructed in England and the others in Holland. The company to which the steamers belong have their head office in Amsterdam, whilst Messrs Hotz, s'Jacob and Co. have been appointed the agents here in Hongkong. Mr P. J. Roosegaarde Bissohop, the head agent of the company, is at present in the city perfecting arrange-

The route of the steamers will be from Batavia to Samarang, Souralmya, Macassar, Hongkong, Shanghai, Kobe, and Yoko. hama, and on the return the ports called at Singapore and Batavia.

So far trade between Java, China and Japan has only been carried on by charter to have nothing to do with foreign affairs, steamers, and there can be no doubt that the action of these agents proved of warrant it. So far tourists have not found should it prove detrimental, their action owing chiefly to the lack of a regular was disavowed. In that event the agent steamer service, but now that the new comwas not punished, but only transferred to pany has come into existence it is safe to more widely known.

A False Charge.

Ou Sunday last Chan Ke Cheong reported to Sergeant McSwayde at the Chan Wan Police Station in the New Territory, that his house had been broken into by robbers and goods amounting to a few hundred dollars stolen. He accused a native of being concerned in the offence and McSwayde bad him arrested. On being charged before Mr Kemp this morning, however, the prosecutor's story proved to be too thin for him to believe, and he consequently sent the prosecutor to prison for three weeks, for making a false charge.

The Chamber of Commerce.

We understand that Mr E. A. Hewett; agent of the P. and O. Company, has been appointed Chairman of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce. Mr Hewett's knowledge of public affairs and the needs of Far Eastern commerce, acquired during a prolonged stay in the East, gives him exceptional fitness for the responsible position of Chairman of a representative body like the Chamber. The members may be congratulated upon
